Kathmandu Top 4 UNESCO World Heritage Sites Day Tour

Kathmandu Valley UNESCO Sites Day Tour.

Nepal is well-known across the world as the home of Mount Everest and Lord Buddha. The geographical and ethnic diversity of the country has widely resulted in the richly diverse culture of the country. Each ethnic group exhibits unique music, dance, art, craft, folktales, festivals, languages, and literature. The country is bestowed with a sumptuous volume of UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Kathmandu Valley UNESCO Tour takes you through the old gallis (alleys) of Patan Durbar Square, where timeless wood and stone carvings of hundreds of Hindu and Buddhist idols greet you from every temple wall. You can admire the countless designs on wood-carved windows and the architectural achievements of Newar artisans centuries ago. The stone-carved Krishna temple is craftsmanship at its finest. Also, the row of pagoda temples in the Durbar Square is very aesthetically appealing. The Patan Durbar Square is beautiful and filled with rich culture and architecture. You can also visit Swayambhunath and Baudhanath, where you can enjoy a blissful time away from the noise and chaos of the city. Spinning hundreds of prayer wheels that encircle the main domes and becoming a part of spiritual enchantments and prayers in the evenings gives you a whole new experience.

Kathmandu Valley UNESCO Tour will allow you to visit four popular heritage sites:

- Patan Durbar Square,
- Pashupatinath Temple,
- Swayambhunath Temple, and
- The Baudhanath Stupa.

These packages include sightseeing in heritage sites. The tour is very suitable for those who want to enjoy Nepal's cultural and historical sites.
