Trishuli River Rafting -1 day

Trishuli River Rafting is an excellent river for those looking for a short river rafting trip, without the challenge of huge but with some really exciting rapids, with beautiful scenery and a relatively peaceful environment. It not only gives you the thrill and the chill down the spine but it also mesmerizes you with the insight of the beautiful hills, greenery around, the Mankamana cable car and the road alongside.

Trishuli river is located on the west of Kathmandu, on the way to famous beautiful destinations Pokhara and Chitwan National Park. You can reach there within 3 hour drive in a bus. Trishuli River Rafting can be only arranged from February to June and September to Mid-December.
