Frequently Asked Questions: Kailash Mansarovar Luxury Tour

Why should I choose a Kailash Mansarovar Luxury Tour over a standard package?

A luxury tour provides maximum comfort and safety at extreme altitudes (4,500 m to 5,630 m). Specifically, we provide 5-star hotels in Kathmandu, private 4WD oxygen-equipped vehicles, top-rated Tibetan accommodations, and dedicated porter support during the Kora. Furthermore, our team supplies hyperbaric emergency equipment and personal chefs to ensure a stress-free pilgrimage.

What is the physical difficulty level of the 3-day Kailash Kora?

The Kailash Kora is a high-altitude trek requiring moderate to high physical fitness. You will trek 53 kilometers over three days. The most challenging section involves crossing Dolma La Pass (5,630 m / 18,471 ft) on Day 2. However, our luxury package includes personal porters or riding horses upon request to assist you along the trail.

How do you manage altitude sickness on this luxury tour?

We prioritize your health through structured acclimatization. First, you spend two nights in Kathmandu (1,400 m) and two nights in Gyirong (2,700 m) before reaching the high plateau. Additionally, all private vehicles carry portable medical oxygen cylinders. Therefore, our expert Tibetan guides monitor your oxygen saturation daily with pulse oximeters.

What are the sacred highlights of Lake Mansarovar?

Lake Mansarovar (4,556 m) is one of the highest freshwater lakes in the world. According to Hindu belief, Lord Brahma created this holy lake in his mind. Consequently, pilgrims perform morning prayers, meditation, and ritual holy dips along its serene shoreline. In addition, you will visit the historic Chiu Monastery, where Guru Rinpoche famously meditated.

What visa and travel permits do I need for Mount Kailash?

Foreign travelers require a Tibet Travel Permit (TTP), an Alien's Travel Permit (ATP), a Military Permit, and a Chinese Group Visa. Because Mount Kailash sits in a sensitive border zone in western Tibet, independent travel is strictly forbidden. Consequently, we handle all permit applications and embassy visa processing seamlessly in Kathmandu before your departure.

How do you cater to vegetarian or pure Jain dietary requirements during the trek?

Our luxury tour team provides complete dietary support throughout the journey. In cities like Kathmandu, Saga, and Gyirong, you will dine on high-quality vegetarian and international cuisine at top hotels. Furthermore, during the remote 3-day Kailash Kora, our private kitchen crew prepares fresh, hot, pure vegetarian (and Jain-compliant) meals daily using pristine cooking equipment and clean drinking water.
