The Mardi Himal Trek 9 Days is a hidden gem in the world-famous Annapurna region of Nepal. This moderate-grade trekking package is perfect for beginners and experienced hikers looking for a peaceful journey. Additionally, you will walk along pristine mountain ridges away from crowded trails while enjoying views managed under the Annapurna Conservation Area Project \(ACAP\).

First, your Mardi Himal Trek 9 Days adventure begins with a scenic transfer from Kathmandu to Pokhara. From there, the trail enters dense oak and rhododendron forests. Along the way, you will pass through charming local villages like Dhampus and Pothana. Consequently, you can enjoy authentic Gurung hospitality, traditional stone houses, and tranquil natural surroundings.

However, the true crown jewel of the Mardi Himal Trek 9 Days is reaching Mardi Himal Base Camp at 4,500 meters. From the high ridge, you will experience sweeping 360-degree views of Machhapuchhre (Fishtail Peak), Annapurna South, and Hiunchuli. In addition, official guidelines and permits for visiting the region can be verified through the Nepal Tourism Board. Afterward, the trail descends through Siding village, offering a rich cultural end to your adventure.

Furthermore, are you looking to explore more of the region? In fact, the Mardi Himal Trek 9 Days route easily connects with the Annapurna Base Camp Trek or the Annapurna Circuit Trek. Similarly, you can add our full-day Kathmandu UNESCO World Heritage Tour before starting your trek. Ultimately, the best seasons for this trip are spring (March to May) and autumn (September to November).

Trek Highlights

- Mardi Himal Base Camp (4,500m): Stand close to the spectacular face of
