The Upper Mustang Trek 14 Days is an extraordinary Himalayan adventure. It takes you into the former Kingdom of Lo. This high-altitude desert lies behind Annapurna and Dhaulagiri. Additionally, you will explore red sandstone cliffs and ancient sky caves.

Scenic Route & Required Permits

First, your Upper Mustang Trek 14 Days journey starts in Kathmandu. You can take a drive or choose optional domestic flights to Pokhara and Jomsom. From there, you cross Kagbeni to enter the restricted zone. Your required Restricted Area Permit (RAP) and ACAP Permit are arranged by us in advance. Along the way, you will hike along ancient salt trading routes. You will pass whitewashed villages and sacred prayer walls. Consequently, you will experience authentic Tibetan heritage firsthand.

Exploring Lo Manthang & Sacred Sites

However, the main highlight of the Upper Mustang Trek 14 Days is Lo Manthang at 3,840 meters. Inside the walled city, you can explore the historic Royal Palace and active monasteries. In addition, you can visit the ancient Chhoser Sky Caves carved into cliffs. Environmental care in this region is managed by the Annapurna Conservation Area Project \(ACAP\). Afterward, your return trail descends through Drakmar to Muktinath Temple.
