

The Everest Base Camp Short Trek takes you to the backyard of the Sherpas - Namche Bazaar, Sagarmatha National Park, and Kala Patthar. Mt. Everest has traditionally been the ultimate goal for mountaineers who want to accomplish when they come to Nepal.

This trek passes through Sherpa town, where trekkers acclimatize and admire the lifestyle and hospitality of the locals.

You can observe breathtaking and mesmerizing spectacles of Mt. Everest, Mt. Lhotse, Mt. Makalu, Cho-Oyu, and many other tall peaks. The biodiversity of the Sagarmatha National Park is especially attractive.

Furthermore, you will arrive at Tengboche Monastery, the highest monastery in the Khumbu region of Nepal. Please familiarize yourself with the inhabitants of Sherpa communities and their culture and lifestyles.

Witness the beauty of Mt. Everest (8,848 m), Mt. Lhotse (8,516 m), Mt. Makalu (8,463 m) and Cho Yu (8,201 m) on this trek. You can observe amazing wildlife like snow leopards, musk deer, and the Himalayan Monal.

The stunning Khumbu Glacier and panoramic Kala Pathar (5,555m) will give a mesmerizing and memorable experience. This trek takes you to the world's highest airport in Syanboche.

We start our hike to the Everest base camp with a flight from Kathmandu to Lukla, equipped with all the necessary permits and trekking gear. The Everest Base Camp Short Trek is full of challenges, excitement, and beauty.

The best time to go on this trek is Autumn (Sep-Oct-Nov) and Spring (March-April-May). This trek is moderate, which takes you to an elevation of 5364 meters.